London Bridge May Come to Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)— When London Bridge comes down, it may land in Arkansas.
The city of London put its historic bridge up for sale last year after announcing plans to replace it with a modern steel and concrete span.

A Little Rock lawyer and two prominent Arkansas businessmen revealed Tuesday that they had formed the London Bridge Corp., last November to attempt to purchase the landmark.

Ray Thornton, the attorney for the corporation, W. R. "Witt" Stephens, president and chairman of the board of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., and Jack Stephens of the Stephens Inc., are the incorporators.

Thornton said the corporation was considering locating the structure in parks at Hot Springs or London (Pope County). He said the group originally had hoped to place the bridge over the Arkansas River but that engineering studies indicated that this would be impractical.

ALARM SYSTEM ELIMINATES FLOOR PACING

Dear Helen:
My wife never out grew "sitting up with the baby." Only now it's sitting up and waiting for the teenagers. She refuses to sleep until they are safe in their beds. To keep herself awake, she reads. If they are five minutes overdue, she paces. She gets so nervous I can't sleep, and she's driving the kids batty. Who needs Mama waiting to welcome them at the door?

I argue, but she says this is her duty as a mother. What do you say? — ABANDONED

Dear Ab:
I'd say your wife is an anxiety nut, but that won't change her. You might suggest the "clock cure." A friend of mine sets an alarm clock for the time her teen is due home. Then she puts it outside her bedroom door and goes to sleep. If he comes in before his curfew, he turns off the buzzer button and Mama continues her rest. If he doesn't, the alarm makes his deadline, the alarm arsenic and vinegar, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

sleep has never been disturbed. A good idea? — H.

Dear Helen:
Here's another whyohwhyohwhyohwhyohwhy.

Why did the Good Lord make men and women so different and expect them to live together? I'm haphazard; he's precise. I like salads; he likes rare steaks.

I'm spur-of-the moment; he's a planner. I like to talk; he likes TV. I'm a spender where he's a saver (hobbies, new cars).

I like the snow; he freezes. He likes the desert; I swelter. Yet even when we fight, we're happy that we have each other. Are we — CRAZY OR SOMETHING?

Dear Crazy or Something:
Nope — you're in love or something — and I like to stay that way. Perhaps you're like red and green — so different you complement each other. — H.

Dear Helen:
We have an older relative living with us. He's 70, but looks 60 and is in good health. The trouble is, his personal habits and grooming leave something to be desired.

We have a nice home. I just can't see him sitting on our good upholstery the way he looks. Yet, when I suggest that he shave and get cleaned up, he gets furious. He says he isn't going anywhere, forget it.

Why do old people get so careless? — CELESTE

Dear Celeste:
... Because they've lost interest in life, and therefore, in their personal appearances. Your relative "isn't going anywhere" — that's his big problem.

Aim him toward a Golden Age Club, a hobby, retired friends, church, volunteer work — anything to get him back in circulation. Include him on some of your family trips, even if only to the supermarket. And insist that he "get fixed up" before every outing. He'll soon regain his pride when he learns he is wanted and needed. — H.

P.S. It won't be as easy as I make it sound; you'll need to nag a bit, friend. — H.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — It is a musical event of importance when Arthur Rubenstein, David Oistrakh and the Bolshoi Ballet appear together in one concert.

The occasion Tuesday night was CBS's 90-minute special, "S. Hurok Presents." The program was presented with complete simplicity. It opened with Oistrakh playing the Bach Violin Concerto. The Bolshoi Corps de Ballet and three soloists then presented a portion of Adolphe Adams, "Giselle." The final, longest portion was the 77-year-old Rubenstein playing Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 4 in full.

During the final portion, the camera became more active and inventive, moving from close-ups of Rubenstein's face to his hands on the keyboard, also doing some double shots and focusing on some of the instrumentalists in the orchestra.

Since the Telephone Hour started it last season, the business of skipping middle-of-the-show commercials has become something of a TV status symbol. The sponsors of the Hurok show, a mutual fund, had only the briefest, soft-sell statement at the program's end, and in a curious innovation, gave the home viewers an intermission of absolute silence for a minute between the three segments of the program.

Earlier, NBC presented a summary of the career of the late Clark Gable. MGM, the studio for whom Gable made most of his films during his long career, produced the program and tagged it a documentary. Actually it consisted of bits from many of his films, a sketchy biography covering his pre-war years, and some very brief, but hardly incisive reminiscences by people who knew him then and later.

In spite of the gushy, superficial writing, it was a fascinating show to watch. We saw Gable the lover—he gathered into his strong arms all the great women stars from the early 1930s to his death in 1960—from Garbo to Ava Gardner and Marilyn Monroe. We even saw him as Rhett Butler in "Gone With the Wind,"—just a few clips from a film that has been withheld from TV broadcast.

It is a big night for specials and ABC, with them all, has pre-empted its entire Wednesday night schedule to make room. The first is "The Savage World of the Coral Jungle,"—7:30-8:30 EST—second in the undersea series of Jacques-Yves Cousteau. Then comes a half-hour called "The New Generation," that has Ryan O'Neal of "Peyton Place" interviewing Mia Farrow on her life and ideas. Princess Grace will be a tour guide on a musical trip around Monaco—9-10. Then comes the first of a three-part adaptation of William L. Shirer's massive history of Nazi Germany, "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich."

There are many conventions that any good bridge player should keep in his tool kit. One of these is the two-club response to a no-trump opening to see if the no-trumper holds a four-card major suit. This convention is called "Stayman" after Sam Stayman of New York, the first to publicize it, but there are almost as many variations as there are bridge players.

We use our own form of Stayman combined with our Jacoby transfer, and almost every good player in the world employs some form of Stayman also.

In other words, it is a good convention but, like all good conventions, it should not be used with every hand.

In the Tri-State Regional at the famous Grossinger's Hotel in Liberty, N.Y., the mixed pairs event was won by Gilbert and Doris Brown. Today's hand shows one of their good scores. Doris opened one no-trump and Gil saw no reason to look for a 4-4 major fit because he had honors in every other suit. He just bid three no-trump and left Doris to struggle with it.

Doris won the first trick with dummy's ace of hearts and promptly lost the diamond finesse. West led a second heart to her queen and she led the nine of clubs, covered by the 10, queen and king. East couldn't lead another heart and shifted to the seven of spades. Doris played the queen and was delighted to find one finesse that worked. She led the eight of clubs and lost that finesse to the jack, but it didn't matter. She wound up with two spades, three hearts, two diamonds and two clubs for a satisfactory nine tricks.

It was particularly satisfactory when it turned out that four spades would be down two.

Children Are Credited With Success

By DON GUY

Associated Press Writer
ANIMOVER, Mass. (AP) — "If there were no waste disposal... our town will smelt."

"I like the water company because they dig big holes in the street."
These are a few of the quotes that have made this year's town report an instant best seller in this north-of-Boston community. Instead of stuffy lists of municipal accomplishments, the report features young school children's comments about their town of 20,000 population.

Children's drawings by the hundreds illustrate it with a youngster's imagination.
The report, "as children see us," is the idea of Town Manager Richard J. Bowen. In an introduction he says: "There is a simplicity of truth in the eyes of children."

Although most of the report contains sober accounts by various town officials, here are a few by the youngsters:

Police: "The policeman helps me when I am kidnapped."
Firemen: "The fireman helps us if our house is on fire. If your brother is in the house the fireman goes in and gets the boy out."

Highways: "Streets are very important. We drive on streets to go places."

The park department: "Trees help keep the sun away from hot people."

But the street lighting department gets a dig: "We need a new light on our street."

One youngster dismissed Memorial Hall Library in big letters: "Libraries are for book worms."

Parental conversation at the dinner table probably inspired this: "The town meeting is accepting our road. We payed a hundred dollars for it. Others payed a million."

School May Lose Aid From State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A state Education Department official said Tuesday that the Wabbaseka School District could lose its state funds if it doesn't raise local funds to meet a $4,030 deficit from the district's 1966-67 fiscal year.

Harvey Snell, assistant commissioner for administrative services of the department, said that any school district that goes into the red in any one year loses state funds until the district raises local funds to overcome the deficit.

Joe Simpson, Wabbaseka district superintendent, said Monday that the district's teachers had been under paid $4,030 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1967.

The deficit was created when the $500 teacher salary raises authorized by the 1967 legislature apparently weren't fully distributed in the deficit.

Hope Star SPORTS

Hope Track Season Is Promising

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

It was a most enjoyable basketball season, but its close brings the "spring" sports back to the scene for 1968.

At the top of the athletic picture is the HHS track squad, who are now in the midst of preparing for their most promising season yet. Many outstanding performers return from last year's 4th place finishers in Region 4-AA meet, but a strong point will surely be the quality of the sophomores, who formed the nucleus of a top-flight junior high squad last year.

Senior Buzz Andrews returns for his last chance at lowering his hurdle marks, which already have rewritten the school record books. The defending 4-AA champion in both the 120 highs and the 180 lows, Buzz could easily approach some more lucrative standards this spring. However, his publicity is likely to be matched by soph John Spraggins, who is set for his first year of high school competition after setting a state record in the junior 440 as a freshman.

Alan Phillips should be among the state's best in the 880, and his speed will also help on the longer relays. These few are the more proven, but coach Ronnie Higgins should have no problems in finding spots for a good crew of runners.

The thinclads should not be as strong in the field events, but that speculation could be shelved if the strongmen have good years. Their best event should be the shot put, with junior Carroll Beck and soph Jimmy Afford. Both will challenge the district's best, and both have next year to look forward to.

Along with track, the Hope High golf team has begun working out for the '68 season, and the linksters should improve from last year's squad, which placed fourth in the conference. 4-AA champion Magnolia should be tough again this year, and they will have the home course advantage for the district championships.

This sport will be tough to report, though, since this writer is among the returning lettermen from last year's golfers. Also back are senior Terry Hair and junior Danny Reyenga, and a crop of freshmen will be relied upon for help. The season begins in about three weeks, and will include competition from Class AAA, 4-AA, and defending state Class A champ Fordyce.

Texarkana Pulls Upset in AA Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Fort Smith Northside kept merrily on its winning way defeating Jacksonville 54-26, while Texarkana upset highly ranked North Little Rock 65-58 in the state Class AA high school basketball tournament here Tuesday.

In Class AA action, Searcy withstood a third period comeback in downing Valley Springs 58-51, and defending champion Harrison squeaked past Russellville 55-50.

Fort Smith Southside took a 9-1 early lead and was never challenged in its 51-44 victory over Little Rock Hall in earlier Class AAA play and Marianna Futrell downed Camden Fairview 63-55 by scoring 10 points in overtime.

Texarkana took a slim margin midway of the first period behind the 25-point shooting of Tom McAlister to lead North Little Rock 29-24 at halftime and pulled away for good in the third quarter.

Pairings in NCAA Meet Are All Set

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer
It will be Columbia vs. La-Salle at College Park, Md., and East Tennessee vs. Florida State at Kent, Ohio, in the first round of the NCAA national collegiate basketball championship tournament on Saturday.

Columbia, eighth-ranked nationally, gained its NCAA berth by whipping Princeton 92-74 in the playoff Tuesday night for the Ivy League title. East Tennessee landed its spot by downing Murray State 79-75 in the playoff for the Ohio Valley Conference crown.

Kansas of the Big Eight became the 14th team named to the other major postseason tournament, New York's National Invitation. Two more teams still are to be selected to fill the NIT field.

The remaining two berths in the 23-team NCAA field will go to the winners this week of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament and the West Coast Athletic Conference.

The unbeaten St. Bonaventure Brown Indians from Olean, N.Y., third-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll to Houston and UCLA, just barely made it 24 in a row, including 22-0 this season. They had to go made it 24 in a row, including 22-0 this season. They had to go overtime for a 70-69 squeaker over Fairfield at New Haven, Conn.

The Bonnies, named for the NCAA tourney two weeks ago, were paced by Bob Lanier, a 6-foot-11 sophomore, who scored 23 points and grabbed 14 rebounds in addition to three vital assists in the extra period.

The aroused Stags missed forcing a second overtime when Billy Jones, who scored 21 points, missed a free throw with two seconds left.

Columbia, paced by soph Jim McMillan's 37 points, exploded early in the second half to drub Princeton on St. John's neutral court in New York.

Mike Kretzer paced East Tennessee over Murray State with 21 points in the OVC playoff on Eastern Kentucky's neutral court in Richmond, Ky. It was the first OVC championship for the Buccaneers.

Fordham and Villanova, each NIT-bound, scored easy victories. Fordham whipped Colgate 91-67 and the Wildcats took Seton Hall 80-66.

Indiana defeated Wisconsin 93-85, Purdue whipped Michigan State 93-75, Providence vanquished Brown 80-66, Xavier of Ohio edged Cincinnati 72-71, North Texas took Memphis State in overtime 63-62 and Niagara upended Canisius 96-84.

Calvin Murphy, Niagara's hot-shooting soph, the No. 2 scorer in the nation, got 41 points in his last game of the season. That gave him 916 for the year.

Henderson Is Upset in Playoffs

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas College forced Henderson into a rubber game by handing the Reddies a 69-55 defeat in the second game of a three-game playoff that will determine which teams represent District 17 in the national NAIA tournament at Kansas City.

Henderson appeared to be on the way to a duplication of their 73-68 victory in the first game Monday night, but the Highlanders took over in the second quarter and ran away with the game in the final period.

Arkansas College's Jim Haney scored 21 points, while Larry Duckworth hit 14 for Henderson.

The third game will be played tonight at Pine Bluff.

points led the 76ers closer to their third straight Eastern Division title. Wilt also had 21 rebounds and 15 assists. Toby Kimball had 22 for San Diego.

Dave Bing scored 16 points in the last 12 minutes to bring the Pistons to their slim victory and within one point of fourth-place Cincinnati in the Eastern Division. Bing finished with 25 and Bob Boozer led the Bulls with 30.

St. Louis' victory over San Francisco reduced its magic number of clinching the Western Division title to four. The Hawks, in whipping the Warriors for the seventh time in eight outings, pulled away with a 47-point third period after leading at halftime 59-52.

Don Ohl triggered the St. Louis attack with 28 points.

Baseball Pay Goes Into the Record

Frank Howard may get a lot of surprises before the 1968 baseball season ends, but none is likely to be more astonishing than seeing his salary dispute with the Washington Senators end up in the Congressional Record.

The big left fielder signed for about $47,500 early this week after a holdout and Tuesday John P. Saylor of Pennsylvania rose on the floor of the House of Representatives to take note of the negotiations "for possible future reference."

Saylor was talking about statements made by George Selkirk, the Senators' general manager.

Selkirk was reported as saying, "It might be pleasant to see someone out there in left who can throw, run and field."

Saylor replied, "In view of management's enviable position whereby a player, bound by the reserve clause, cannot contract with more than one professional baseball club, it is unfortunate that he should be subjected to insults when he seeks to bargain for a salary raise."

Saylor continued that Howard "may not be worth what he is asking, or even what he has been offered, but whether a ball club's exclusive signatory carries with it the right to public castigation of its vassals is open to a question of ethics."

The message is not likely to be lost on other general managers, but, in at least one case, it is probably unnecessary. Baltimore Personnel Director Harry Dalton could certainly have little derogatory to say about Frank Robinson's throwing, running or fielding.

Robinson and the Orioles still were some $15,000 apart Tuesday, the 1966 batting champion asking for $125,000.

"We did not up our offer and Frank did not come down," Dalton said. "I repeated I felt we had made a very fair, considerate offer and told him I felt it was time he signed and got to work."

Another major holdout, Jim Maloney of Cincinnati, was no closer than Robinson to signing Tuesday. Instead, said the pitcher, he was going home to Fresno, Calif., hinting darkly that he hoped the Reds would trade him.

General Manager Bob Howsam said the next move was up to Maloney. Howsam is also still trying to get his star outfielder, Yada Pinson, to sign a contract.

The Reds did sign two of their holdouts, though, as outfielder Pete Rose and reserve infielder Chico Ruiz agreed to terms.

The Pittsburgh Pirates signed up their last player when Matty Alou arrived in camp from the Dominican Republic where he said he had trouble getting a visa. Pitcher Bob Humphreys also signed with the Senators Tuesday.

French Star May Lose His Medals

POUND RIDGE, N.Y. (AP)

Jean-Claude Killy, triple gold medal winner in the recent Winter Olympic Games, has been given until Friday to show cause why he should not be suspended by the International Skiing Federation (FIS).

Killy, a Frenchman who won his gold medals in the Alpine skiing events at the Grenoble Games, denied in Saint Gervais, France, on Tuesday that he had received money for exclusive photos in a Paris magazine.

Bjoern Cjellstrom, chairman of the FIS eligibility committee, said in Pound Ridge that if Killy can prove his claim he will be cleared of any taint on his amateur record.

"FIS has given him until next Friday to show cause why he should not be suspended," Cjellstrom said. "Disqualification would mean loss of his titles. As for his Olympic medals, that would be up to the International Olympic Committee."

Maurice Martel, president of the French Ski Federation, said in Saint Gervais, France, that Killy "informed me that he is sending me a letter officially declaring on his honor that he had never received any money for the exclusively accorded the magazine Paris-Match."

"I have also contacted executives of Paris-Match who certified to me that the magazine had never paid any sum to Killy," Martel added.

Martel had been asked by Marc Hodler of Switzerland, president of the FIS, to get Killy's version.

"I consider," Martel said, "that after the conversation that I have had with Hodler, Jean-Claude Killy is going to be able to continue to race and should be able to finish his season normally."

This means Killy would be able to race in the events counting for the World Cup, including races in the United States.

Kings Split With Canadian Hockey Teams

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Kings have spent eight games in their freshman season showing they can be most diplomatic in bettering Canadian-American relations.

The Kings, in dropping a 6-2 National Hockey League decision to Montreal Tuesday night, split their season down the middle against the northern neighbors' two teams, the Canadiens and the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Montreal victory, in the only NHL game Tuesday, enabled the Canadiens to widen their lead in the East Division to five points over the New York Rangers.

Los Angeles, in losing, also lost a chance to move past the Minnesota North Stars into second place in the West. The Kings remain four points behind the West Division-leading Philadelphia Flyers.

Los Angeles gave the Canadiens a taste of hockey, Southern California style, by beating them 4-2 and 3-2 in their first two meetings this season. Then Montreal found the secret formula and pounded Los Angeles 5-1 and 6-2.

They showed the 14,450 fans at the Forum why to get to a hockey game on time.

With just 41 seconds gone, Ralph Backstrom put the puck past Kings goalie Wayne Rutledge. Montreal opened a 2-0 lead 33 seconds later when Jean Beliveau notched his 26th goal of the season.

At 6:41 Bobby Rousseau gave Montreal its third tally. Montreal outshot the Kings 15-7 in the first period. The teams broke even in fistfuffs in the period.

Boxing Is Changing Its Image

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Boxing bubbled with revived spirit today and looked ahead to a series of top caliber matches.

The highly successful twin title show in the new Madison Square Garden Monday night, in which Joe Frazier stopped Buster Mathis and Nino Benvenuti edged Emile Griffith, may have touched off a fresh boom in the often kicked around sport.

Cassius Clay said boxing would die when he left. Well, the corpse had a lively time Monday night when 18,096 fans paid from $10 to $100 in contributing to a record indoor gate of $658,603.

Frazier collected $175,000 and New York, Massachusetts, Maine and Illinois recognition as heavyweight champion while stopping Mathis with one short, jolting left hook to the temple in the 11th round.

The Philadelphia slugger's manager, Yancey Durham, talked about possible lucrative matches with the winner of the Jerry Quarry-Jimmy Ellis World Boxing Association title fight April 27, and with Floyd Patterson, Boone Kirman of Seattle, Wash., Manuel Ramos of Mexico and Argentine Eduardo Corlett.

Benvenuti, back at the top as middleweight champion, may take on Don Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, Luis Rodriguez of Miami, Fla., or Gypsy Harris of Philadelphia, in his next title fight.

Both managers said they would take their time before signing for the next match. Durham said he will wait until Quarry of Bellflower, Calif., and Ellis of Louisville, Ky., settle their title fight.

"But they'll have to challenge us," said Durham.

Wednesday, March 6, 1968

He said the unbeaten Frazier, winner of 20 fights including 18 knockouts, would have to get at least equal terms with the WBA winner.

Harry Markson and Teddy Brenner, who head the Garden's boxing team, said they have signed light heavyweight champion Dick Tiger and Bob Foster, the knockout contender from Washington, for a title bout in the Garden, possibly for May 24.

They also said they hope to make a Patterson-Kirkman fight for May 6 and a bout between Griffith and Italy's Sandro Mazzinghi, the former world junior middleweight champion, for either May or June.

LL Standings Change With Upsets

An old basketball adage says that if you give ten boys one basketball, anything can happen. It was proved true again Saturday in youth league basketball at Jones Field House.

The week before, the Greens lost to the winless Reds. This week the undefeated Whites fell to the Greens. The Blues who looked like the team to beat the first week of play, lost their third straight.

This week they will get the chance to become giant killers also as they tangle with the first place Whites in the second game Saturday.

At 9:00 the Reds and Greens square off to break their tie for second place.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $45,000 Hill-Burton grant has been approved by the Health, Education and Welfare Department for construction of North Arkansas County Health Center at Stuttgart, Sen. J. William Fulbright announced Tuesday.

Goldwater Can't Go for Rockefeller

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater, saying he could not support Nelson A. Rockefeller for the Republican nomination for president, has reported nearly all his 1964 team is working for Richard M. Nixon.
"I and my fellow conservatives want no part of Rockefeller," said the 1964 Republican presidential candidate.
He noted the New York governor had not actively backed him in 1964.
Goldwater also said in a telephone interview from his Phoenix, Ariz., home he has never voted against a Republican presidential candidate but would have reservations about Rockefeller.

"I would have to see some change in his positions," Goldwater said. "I would have to know his position on Vietnam. I have never heard his position on the war. I don't think he could come out as a dove but I just don't know where he stands."
He said he also wants to know Rockefeller's stand on the labor issue and criticized the governor's handling of the recent New York City garbage strike.
"He is going to have to make some rather strong cases on these issues," Goldwater said. "There are a lot of members of our party who won't support him as matters stand."
In other political developments:
— Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy said he is trying to attract New Hampshire Republican write-in votes, in the New Hampshire primary, particularly those that would have gone to Michigan Gov. George Romney, for his antiwar Democratic presidential bid.
— Republican support, the Minnesota Democrat said at Dover, N.H., "won't have any bearing on delegates (for the Democrat-

Taylor Wins Pass Catching Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Charlie Taylor of the Washington Redskins won the National Football League's pass receiving title for the second straight year in 1967, statistics released today by the league showed.
Taylor caught 70 passes, two less than in 1966, though he missed three games with injuries. Ben Hawkins of the Philadelphia Eagles led in yards gained on pass receptions with 1,265. Homer Jones of the New York Giants caught the most touchdowns passes, 13.
Jones also led in yards gained per reception for the second straight year with a 24.7-yard average. Lance Rentzel of the Dallas Cowboys had the best single game, catching 13 for 223 yards against Washington.
Walter Robert of the New Orleans Saints caught the longest pass, a 96-yarder from Bill Kinler in a game against Philadelphia.

ic National Convention) but it will certainly be counted and reported to the country."
— Third party presidential candidate George Wallace's campaign in the midwest got off to a tumultuous start—drawing a noisy crowd of more than 5,000 persons at Omaha, Neb. About 50 hecklers threw bits of placards, sticks and small stones toward the speakers' stand then struggled briefly with police before they were ejected.
— The latest Gallup Poll says Nixon is favored by 67 per cent of all Republicans and Rockefeller is the choice of 30 per cent. Rockefeller had a slight lead—47 to 45—among independent voters but trailed Nixon 48 to 44 among all voters.
Goldwater said he could enthusiastically support California Gov. Ronald Reagan as the GOP presidential nominee—but said he is convinced Reagan does not intend to seek the nomination.
He said he expects to talk to Reagan further on March 20 when he attends a dinner in California.
Goldwater said he thinks, however, that a Nixon-Reagan ticket might be an ideal choice for the Republicans.

The Hope High School Lady Cats and their coach, Mrs. Charlotte Gibson, were special guests at the Kiwanis Club's regular noon meeting Tuesday. Mrs. Gibson introduced each member and told of their outstanding performance during the season. The program was arranged by Joe Barrentine.

Pat Westbrook, Junanne Reynolds and Susan McCain explained to the Kiwanis Club Tuesday the need for a youth center in Hope. They also asked for the support of the Kiwanis Club in achieving this new center.

Warsaw Pact Nations Are Wrangling

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
Associated Press Writer
SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Leaders of the seven Soviet Bloc nations gathered in the Bulgarian capital today for a Warsaw Pact summit meeting threatened with more wrangling between the Russians and the maverick Romanians.
Bucharest's delegation walked out of the international meeting of Communist parties in Budapest last week rather than still for criticism of Romanian policy and Red China. In what looked like an attempt to patch things up, Soviet Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev stopped in Bucharest on his way to Sofia and met with Romanian party chief Nicolae Ceausescu. The Soviet delegation arrived in Sofia today. It also included Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and Defense Minister Andrei A. Grechko.

At the meeting, which is expected to last until Friday, the Communist leaders will discuss the Soviet-American draft of a proposed treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons, the Vietnam situation and other subjects, Communist sources said.
The nuclear treaty draft appeared likely to be the chief source of trouble. The Soviet Union is believed seeking unified support of it from its allies, but Romania has opposed the draft in the Geneva disarmament talks and is expected to repeat its arguments here.
After their walkout in Budapest last week, the Romanians

The Mission Band of Haynes Chapel Baptist Church will sponsor a "lemon squeeze" in the lunch room of the church Sunday March 10th, at 2:30 p.m. You are invited to attend, and each person is asked to bring a lemon.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

The local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses have returned from Magnolia, Arkansas where they attended their three-day semi-annual Circuit convention. Mr. Surley Bernard, Jr., presiding minister and delegate, said, the theme of the convention was "Strengthening one another to remain in the faith". On Saturday, a baptism ceremony of newly dedicated ones was held and eight symbolized their dedication by water baptism. With keen anticipation, delegates heard the feature discourse on Sunday afternoon, entitled, "Why does God permit wickedness?", by Mr. Willie Anderson, District Supervisor for this area. To the many delegates and visiting friends assembled, Mr. Anderson said, "The climax of wickedness is at the door! How vital, then, for each one who loves life to take note of these evidences of the Bible and history that point to the near end of this wicked system!"

OBITUARIES

Funeral services for Mr. Clarence W. Dennis, the brother of Elder O. N. Dennis, will be held Friday March 8, 1968, at 2:30 p.m. at the St. Matthew Baptist Church, McNeill, Arkansas.

Mrs. L. O. Crofton will be hostess to the Anna P. Strong Club at the home of Mrs. M. L. Rutherford Friday March 8th, at 7:30 p.m., in their regular monthly meeting.
All members are urged to be present.

warned that they would not tolerate any criticism of their positions at the summit meeting here.
The last Warsaw Pact summit meeting, in Romania 20 months ago, was highlighted by a dispute between Brezhnev and Ceausescu. The Soviets wanted to tighten control of the pact, Romania wanted to loosen it, and they battled to a stalemate. But there has been little recent discussion of changing the pact's command structure, and foreign policy issues appear likely to be the chief topics at the Sofia meeting.

In another East European development, the Czechoslovak Communist party downgraded its chief ideologist, Jiri Hendrych. It apparently was another step in the liberalization of the Czech regime since the ouster Jan. 5 of Antonin Novotny as party leader. Novotny, who rose to power in the Stalinist era, was replaced by Alexander Dubcek.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Diagnosis Doubt
Removed by Biopsy

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—How does a doctor detect cancer of the lymph nodes?
Does it ever affect other parts of the body?

A—Cancer of the lymph nodes is a characteristic of leukemia and Hodgkin's disease. It may also arise from a cancer in another, but often adjacent, organ of the body.
When a doctor feels hard, shotlike lymph nodes his suspicions are aroused and, if there is any doubt about the diagnosis, a small piece of the lymph node is removed for microscopic examination (biopsy).

Q—Will eating charcoal-broiled steak cause cancer of the stomach?

A—Although some reports have cast suspicion in this direction, no cause-and-effect relationship has been demonstrated. If such a relationship did exist it would come not from the charcoal but from flaming fat drippings. The ignition of such drippings can and should be prevented.

Q—What is a basill cancer?

A—I assume you are referring to basal cell carcinoma.
This is a slowly growing skin cancer that is not very malignant. Prompt, complete removal results in a cure.

Q—What are the early symptoms of cancer of the colon?
What are the chances of its being cured if it is discovered early?

A—Cancer of the colon usually produces no early symptoms. Early detection is made by means of a routine checkup with the proctoscope and a fluoroscopic study with a barium enema. With improved methods of diagnosis and treatment, the outlook for a cure is getting better every year.

Q—Will cancer show up in X rays?

A—This would depend on the type and size of the tumor.
Because some forms of cancer do not show up directly on X-ray films, a variety of techniques have been devised to reveal a suspected (and sometimes unsuspected) cancer.
Many of these depend on contrast media, such as barium
concoctions and opaque dyes introduced into the body by mouth, rectum or vein.

Q—I am told that glass fiber and asphalt cause cancer. I'm so worried I'm afraid to walk on asphalt. Please comment.

A—Glass fiber does not produce cancer directly. If a piece became imbedded in the skin and remained there for

13th Star Color Show: Marineland (Fla.) Porpoises

Porpoises go through their show at Marineland, Fla., original of America's major outdoor aquariums, big male and seized the fish. Beneath her the male registers low-level disgust. 35mm. Kodachromes 10 years ago.

Marineland has a quaint custom: When a honeymooning couple appears in the audience the bride is invited to hold the fish while the porpoises jump for it. So perfect is a 200-pound porpoise's control Marineland hasn't lost a bride yet.

Ho-hum—another porpoise, another jump, another fish. Porpoises aren't fish, of course; they are warm-blooded mammals, giving birth to their young, and requiring air just like other animals—they can stay underwater only about a minute at a time. They look like miniature whales, to which they are related.

Two Enter Race for Congress

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two congressional candidates filed for the Democratic primary Tuesday.

They were Marianna Mayor Clyde Andrews, who filed for the 1st District, and former state Rep. Hardy Croxton, who filed for congressman from the 3rd district.

An estimated 200 persons, mostly school-age children, and a small pep band playing a catchy tune accompanied Andrews as he entered the old Supreme Court room at the Capitol to formally file.

Andrews established fiscal responsibility in the federal government as his major campaign issue, saying, "Congress has failed in its responsibility to keep this country economically strong."

girls were wearing large boxes on which had been written, "Un- testified Clyde."

Andrews said conflicting reports about circumstances surrounding the Vietnam War would prevent him from taking a stand on the war until he reached Congress.

"I do think that Congress has been most derelict in its duty for not taking a firm stand on the war," Andrews said.

Andrews is the fourth person to file for the seat now held by Rep. R. C. "Took" Gethings, who says he will retire when his term expires this year.

Croxton of Rogers said he planned to develop the issues in the campaign later, but indicated he would not avoid taking a stand later on the Vietnam war and the balance of payments deficit.

He seeks the seat now held by John Paul Hammerschmidt, a Republican.

Croxton, 47, said Hammerschmidt had reaped the benefits of an outstanding public relations campaign.

Croxton said he was the underdog.

"If they don't elect me, I'll go back to practicing law," he said, "I think I can make a most meaningful contribution to our democratic process."

Croxton is the first person to file for the position, Hammerschmidt, however, has said he plans to seek re-election.

"I hope to conduct a campaign without doubletalk," Croxton said, but he added that it would be difficult to win against the financial resources of the Republicans.

He said he would fully explain his stand on the issues, including the Vietnam war, later.

He said, however, he was concerned about a trend toward "decision by popular misconception" in which the government allowed misconceptions to go unchallenged because the risk of challenging them was too great. He said this might have been the case with the government's handling of the war.

He also said he agreed with a remark he had overheard — "It's too late to lose."

Colombian Airliner Is Hijacked

By CHARLES GREEN

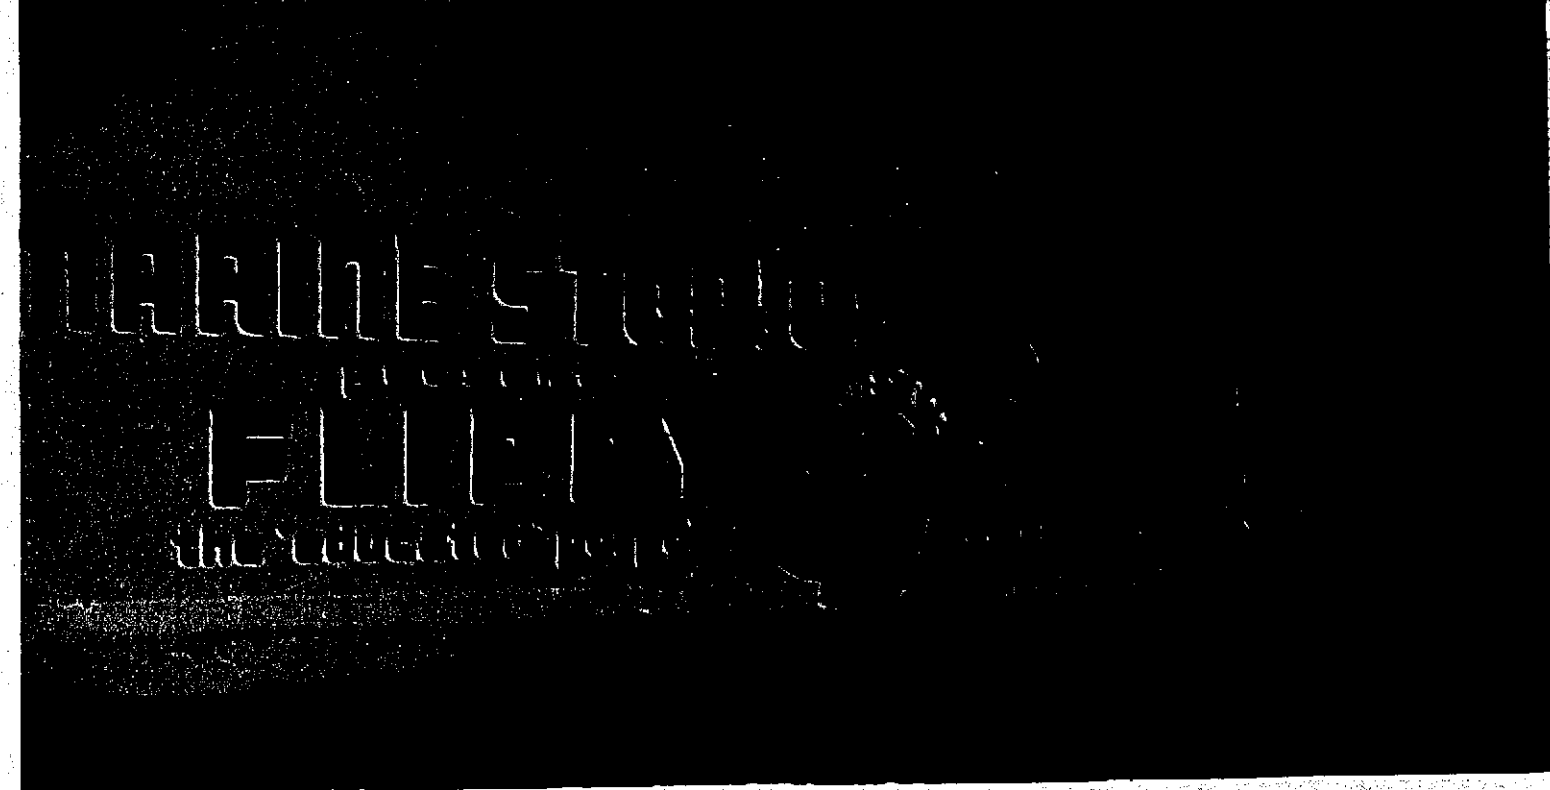

Associated Press Writer

HAVANA (AP) — Havana Radio said today that a Jordanian and two Colombians hijacked the Colombian airliner diverted to Cuba Tuesday with between 32 and 36 persons aboard.

The broadcast said the passengers and crew were guests in the Hotel Versailles in Santiago, where the plane landed in eastern Cuba. It gave no indication when they would be allowed to take the plane back to Colombia, but this is expected soon. In the past, passengers and crewmen of hijacked planes have usually been allowed to leave within 24 hours.

The broadcast said the crew was forced to fly to Cuba by Taty Analaya, a Jordanian who lives at Malicao, Colombia; Enrique Ortiz Acosta and Aristides Villalobos.

The Colombian DC4 plane was

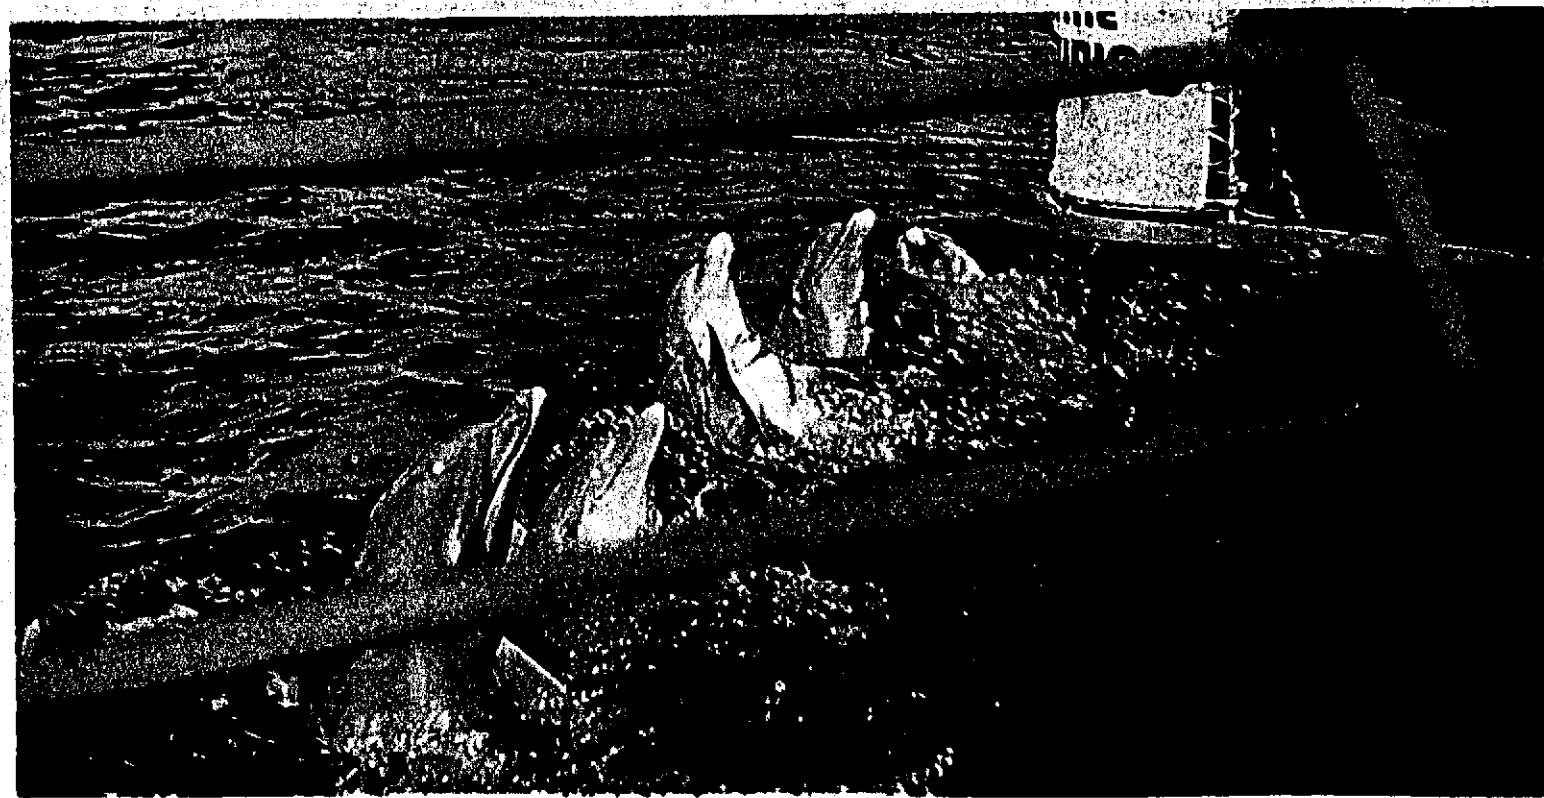

This was a brand new added act when the editor saw it back in the 1950s. Marineland installed a trained porpoise Flippy as the star of a new exhibition pool constructed after World War II.

Picture shows Flippy crashing through the paper shield of a suspended hoop. Behind and above

Here's a close decision: Two porpoises jump but only one gets the prize. Porpoises are superb jumpers because of their fantastic speed. The U.S. Navy has clocked porpoises in the open sea swimming at 45 miles an hour. In the exhibition tank they pick up speed underwater and then shoot as high as 20 feet in the air.

Five "barking dogs"—porpoises treading water awaiting the return to jump for fish. They do actually bark like dogs. And they have something to bark about. Up on the platform with the trainer is a pelican, a fish-eating bird with an enormous appetite. Any time the trainer gives the pelican as much as one fish all the porpoises bark in protest.

This Color Show was produced entirely by

The Star's staff with the exception of the development of the original Kodachrome camera film, a restricted laboratory operation. Washburn made the separation negatives on The Star's 8x10 Berkey color separator, first of its size purchased by an American newspaper; and the press plates, registration, and press work were done by Mechanical Superintendent Billy Dan Jones, assisted by Gene Allen, No. 2 pressman.

New Police Head Says No Obligations

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — New State Police Director Ralph Scott said Tuesday he took the job "completely free of personal or political obligations to any person or group."

"The governor did not even ask my political affiliation," Scott said at a promotion ceremony at State Police headquarters here.

Scott, who was sworn in last Wednesday, said many persons had offered him assistance in getting his job, but he said he turned down the offers because he wanted to be free to operate the office without being subjected to undue influence. "If there is any office in the state government which should be free of political pressures, it is this office," Scott said.

Scott, a retired FBI agent, was an instructor at the state Law Enforcement Academy at Camden when he was appointed director.

Malvern School District Warned

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — The Malvern School District has been warned it must be fully integrated by the start of the 1968-69 school year or face losing federal aid.

School Supt. Lyle Bruce said he received the warning from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in a letter Monday, and said the district would continue under its freedom of choice plan.

told a newsmen by telephone that three men with guns had seized the plane and he believed they were Colombians. Before Urrea could give more details, the telephone connection was cut.

The pilot, Capt. Pedro Viles, radioed Bogota during the flight that he was being forced at gunpoint to take his plane to Cuba.

The airliner, which was owned by Avianca Airlines, was on a milk run around Colombia when it was seized. The Colombian government said the three gunmen commandeered the plane after it left Malicao, a small town near the Venezuelan border in an area where Castroite guerrillas have been reported active.

Halley's Comet will make its next appearance in 1986.

the third hijacked to Cuba this year and the sixth since last Aug. 6, including two other Colombian aircraft. In each case the hijackers asked Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government for political asylum, but there has never been an announcement that any of the requests was granted.

Among the passengers Tuesday were several children, a Colombian senator, two congressmen and an aide to President Carlos Lleras Restrepo, Emilio Urrea, No U.S. citizens were reported aboard.

The plane carried four crew members, but there were conflicting reports on the number of passengers. Colombian sources said there were 28 while Havana Radio said 32.

After the plane landed at Santiago, in eastern Cuba, Urrea

French Plane Down, 63 Feared Dead

POINTE-A-PITRE, Guadeloupe (AP) — Rescue crews reached the wreckage of an Air France 707 Boeing jet today and reported that all 63 persons on board, including a woman identified as the wife of real estate man William Zeckendorf, died when the plane hit a mountain-side Tuesday night.

Cutting through dense terrain, searchers found parts of the plane on Matouba Mountain on the western half of this two-island French West Indies territory. The mountain is about 700 feet high and alongside La Soufriere, a dormant volcano frequently visited by tourists.

The plane ploughed into it as it headed for a landing at Pointe-A-Pitre's Raizet Airport, about 30 miles away. Witnesses said the jet burst into flames and exploded.

A resident of the nearby village of St. Claude told reporters: "It was coming in at an extremely low altitude. I heard it explode like a bomb."

Rescue crews were making their way up the slope of the 3,937-foot volcanic mountain near the village of Sainte Claude. The plane crashed on this French West Indies island as it was coming in for a landing at Pointe-a-Pitre.

The plane was en route from Santiago, Chile, to Paris, and had stopped in Lima, Quito, Caracas and Guadeloupe. It was not known if any U.S. citizens were aboard.

The crash occurred in clear weather and the airport said there was no emergency message from the plane. The airport manager said the plane exploded and burned on the mountain.

An Air France Boeing crashed in Guadeloupe in 1962 and 113 persons were killed.

Antiriot Tagged to Rights Bill, Housing Issue Wins Approval

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has narrowly rejected an effort to exempt single-family homes from a civil rights-open housing bill but has crushed a liberal bid to stave off antiriot amendments.

More and tougher antiriot proposals were on tap today as the Senate continued its seven-week struggle with the civil rights measure.

By a thumping 82-13 vote, Tuesday, the Senate attached to the bill a measure that would make it a federal crime to cross a state line with intent to incite a riot.

And over the objection of Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., floor manager of the bill, it adopted two other Southern-sponsored amendments related to riots and other civil disorders.

In contrast, an amendment to punch a big hole in the proposed ban on discrimination in the sale or rental of housing was barely defeated, 48 to 43.

The amendment, by Sen. Howard H. Baker, Jr., R-Tenn., would have exempted individual homeowners and thus removed from coverage an estimated 29 million single-family dwellings, or about 44 per cent of the housing market.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., said he will propose antiriot amendments to provide federal criminal penalties for a whole series of acts by persons who travel in interstate commerce.

He referred specifically to persons who instigate civil disorders, teach or demonstrate the use of firearms, explosives and incendiary devices like homemade firebombs, engage in sniping and looting, obstruct a fireman or policeman, or shoot at or throw a rock at a car on a federal highway.

Long contended this would be more effective than the antiriot measure tacked on the civil rights legislation Tuesday after Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey had first ruled it out of order.

The antiriot measure, sponsored by Sens. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., and Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, was reworded

$2.5 Billion Budget Shift Is Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight House Republicans called today for cutting $2.5 billion from the administration's budget and shoving $2.5 billion of it into what they called a human renewal fund.

The fund would finance beefed-up programs for job training and vocational education, housing, fighting crime and water and air pollution.

The Republicans called for cuts in U.S. troop deployments in Europe, development of a supersonic transport, the space program, public works, nonmilitary research, highway beautification and farm subsidies.

The statement was issued in advance of a news conference.

The GOP group said creation of a human renewal fund is needed immediately "to meet urgent human needs and the urban crisis in our nation."

Sponsoring the plan were Reps. Charles E. Goodell, N.Y.; W. E. Brock, Tenn.; Albert H. Quie, Minn.; Howard W. Robison, N.Y.; Donald Rumsfeld, Ill.; William O. Cowger, Ky.; George Bush, Texas; and William A. Steiger, Wis.

At Least One of Every Five U.S. Senators Is a Millionaire

By HARRY KELLY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — At least one of every five U.S. senators is considered to be a millionaire.

This is the finding of an Associated Press survey of senators and their associates, back home and in Washington.

It adds to the Senate's reputation as the country's "most exclusive club."

One senator figures the ratio of Senate millionaires is even higher than one out of five.

In a private conversation he estimated that 30 of his colleagues—or almost one third of the 100 senators—were worth a million dollars or close to it.

It is impossible to draw a detailed picture of senatorial assets or financial dealings.

Most politicians avoid publicizing their wealth and the sources of it.

Despite annual demands—and the inevitable drives after such scandals as the Thomas Dodd case—the Senate, as well as the House, has refused to pass a law requiring members to disclose financial holdings, dealings and worth.

In some cases a senator widely believed in his home state to be a millionaire denies that he is.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., Democratic whip and chairman of the Finance Committee, is believed to be a millionaire by the homefolk. They point to land holdings, oil stock and a Baton Rouge law firm.

Asked about this, Long replied ambiguously:

"I have never actually submitted a statement of worth that showed $1 million."

Corruption of Many Vietnam Officials Is Block to U.S. Aid

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A top U.S. civilian adviser says the United States must boldly take the initiative to root out corruption in South Vietnam's government because, he insists, there aren't enough honest Vietnamese officials to do the job.

"Corruption is permeating all echelons of government and society, corroding the vitality of this nation, eroding the framework of government and unnecessarily prolonging the war," the adviser said in private reports from Vietnam.

The reports were made available to The Associated Press on the condition that the adviser, chief of a 22-man team in Vietnam, not be identified.

Saying the United States "must take the initiative in this (remedial action) and, once having started, must continue it," the adviser declared: "Vietnamese officials are so involved that very few have hands sufficiently clean that they can make an immediate major independent contribution."

One report, which outlined a specific plan of action, was submitted last Nov. 29 to the Agency for International Development in Saigon. It went to AID's then-new "Public Administration Ad Hoc Committee on Corruption in Vietnam."

An AID spokesman in Washington told a reporter Tuesday: "The committee never really got started. And it's possible it won't get going."

"When you get into the business of trying to make another government clean, under international law you get into the question of sovereign nations."

The U.S. adviser sent a copy of the report to his superiors in Washington, along with another complaining that he had previously proposed stern measures against graft only to encounter opposition from "hearts and minds purists" in the U.S. mission.

It is time, he said, to stop "treating corruption as a delicate, unmentionable subject."

To clamp down on the situation, his report to AID recommended that the United States:

— Create an anticorruption office within the U.S. mission, in force within the U.S. mission, in force within the U.S. mission.

Cong Shelling Continues, 110 Killed

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. forces killed 110 enemy soldiers in three sharp clashes in the past 24 hours, U.S. spokesmen reported today as the Viet Cong shelled provincial capitals and military posts for the third straight day.

The shelling caused little damage, the U.S. Command said.

About 75 miles north of Saigon, paratroopers of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division ran into 150 Viet Cong holding a village.

The Communists opened up with automatic weapons and bazookas and pulled in about 230 reinforcements. Supported by artillery and rocket-firing helicopters, the Americans killed 56 of the enemy force, spokesmen said, while five Americans were killed and 26 wounded.

Along the coastal lowlands below Da Nang, men of the U.S. Army's Americal Division reported killing 64 enemy soldiers in two clashes. Artillery and air strikes accounted for many of the dead among the enemy forces, who were entrenched in concrete bunkers. Two Americans were killed and 23 wounded.

Other scattered clashes brought total American casualties for the day to 13 killed and 54 wounded, U.S. headquarters reported.

Fighting was reported continuing two miles southwest of Ca Mau, with South Vietnamese troops pursuing guerrillas they drove out of the provincial capital at the southern tip of the country.

The Communists invaded the town Tuesday, and the allied commands said government troops killed 275 of them in 15 hours of fighting before the remnants of the enemy were chased from the town.

The government said the Viet Cong killed 20 civilians and wounded 50 when it seized the provincial hospital.

It reported 10 government soldiers killed and 43 wounded and said more than 1,000 houses and huts were destroyed.

The Viet Cong shelled Ca Mau again today, destroying a building in the hospital compound.

Allied spokesmen said other targets of the enemy bombardment today were three other provincial capitals, five allied airfields, a U.S. Special Forces camp and six American base camps, including the headquarters of the 1st and 25th Infantry Divisions.

U.S. headquarters described the shelling as harassment. It said casualties and damage were light at all locations and the Communists did not follow up with ground attacks.

Harkey Heads Commerce Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller named former Insurance Commissioner John Norman Harkey as chairman of the state Commerce Commission Tuesday.

Harkey was appointed insurance commissioner in February 1967, but resigned last month, saying he had done the job he set out to do.

Rockefeller indicated he would like to appoint Harkey to the Public Service Commission, and Harkey said he would like a chance to work with the state utilities.

However, pressure by Rockefeller to create an opening failed. The first apparent opening will be next January.

The regular monthly Board of Directors meeting of the Hempstead County Farm Bureau will be held on Thursday night, March 7, according to President Troy Burson. The meeting will be held at the Farm Bureau Office beginning at 7:00 p.m., with a potluck supper.

Talbot Field, State Representative, will be the guest speaker.

Mr. Burson urges all board members and other interested persons to attend.

From the ancient days to this one the traveling man has been renowned for his tall tales, but what the drummer tells his customers in this technical day packs a bigger punch than it did in antiquity.

Particularly is this true in the smaller cities. Businesses in the big towns making technical changes and breaking in new equipment can afford to hire consultants to help the local staff, but small enterprises depend on the advice and assistance of the traveling representatives of their suppliers—and this is a big lift.

To illustrate what I am talking about, The Star has obtained for itself and its city correspondents national publicity in graphic arts publications for pioneering work in Arkansas on process color printing—our 13th Four-Color Show appearing in today's edition. There is a story about traveling men and their help to us, in all of this.

On Feb. 20 I reported the visit here of Clifford Morse of Dallas, Southwestern manager of Hydrometals, Inc., one of our suppliers of press plates. He had toured the El Sol group of newspapers in Mexico City and Tampico, and showed me samples of these dailies, magnificent in offset and process color. He paid tribute to the genius of the El Sol group's production manager, Ruben Dias de la Garza of Tampico. I added a note of praise in this column, Hydrometals' Dallas office ordered a dozen copies and mailed them out to Mexican newspapers—and pretty soon I had a foreign correspondence going.

Mexico is a good place from here. But our next account is about Arkansas.

Our $92,000 rotary offset color press was purchased through Clarence Chapman of Jackson, Miss., sales engineer for Fairchild Graphic Equipment, New York. — Mr. Chapman covers the Central South and Southwest for Fairchild, and of course is a gold mine of information on what others are doing in process color.

He repeatedly brought me copies of the Newnan Times-Herald, a big and beautiful weekly specializing in color work, not far from Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Chapman had sold a Fairchild press to the Newnan paper before our purchase, and obviously while showing Newnan's work to us he was also telling Newnan about Hope.

I should say at the outset that Newnan is doing a better job on color than we have done so far—but we're still trying.

But the interesting thing is this letter which I received from Newnan, Ga., dated Feb. 27:

Dear sir: Along with this letter we are sending a sample copy of our newspaper with process color on Page One.

The photographs and separations were made in our plant by my son, Bill Thomasson.

We would appreciate a copy of your newspaper using process color. We also print on a New King press (four units).

My grandfather, J. J. Thomasson, published newspapers in Arkansas around 1885. One was at Okolona, and the other was the Nevada County Pictorial in Prescott. Some members of our family still live in and around Arkadelphia; another Thomasson publishes a paper in Pike county. Yours very truly,
